

Niagara Land Trust

IT'S TYME TO LEARN ABOUT LYME TICKS & LYME DISEASE

Music & a Message

Lyme Disease is now a public health issue and an emotional topic. With the complexity of diagnosing Lyme Disease and the current protocols in our health system, there are many questions and concerns. Lyme Disease is a present and growing concern for all of Niagara's residents.

- DATE Saturday June 17, 2017
- LOCATION Riverstone Conference Centre - 414 River Rd. Welland, Ontario
- TIME 5 p.m. - 9 p.m.
- AGENDA Live music by local jazz players, a light meal with cash bar, silent auction.
- MESSAGE Our guest speakers and panel of experts will offer insights on Lyme Disease, and the ecology of ticks and other creatures that are implicated in the spread of this disease.
- TICKETS $50
- CONTACT www.niagaralandtrust.ca/events/
Gary King 905.734.8022 info@niagaralandtrust.com

Proceeds from this event will go towards Niagara Land Trust's purchase and preservation of the Glenn Robbons Woodlot - West Lincoln